

22 Greene Street Huntly VIC

Set in a prime position in Huntly being only 150m to the shopping precinct and walking distance to schools and transport. Set on approx. 809m², there is 20m frontage to Burgoyne Street for lots 2 - 6 offering potential side access for a shed, caravan or boat and lot 1 is on a corner boasting approx. 759m² with even more scope and ease of access to add these features to your future home. The blocks have all services available, there are retaining walls and fencing on the back boundary and all driveways will be concreted up to the start of the block. All the lots are flat with wide crossovers ready for your new home.

No covenants and no building envelopes required. There is space for your shed, caravan, boat, pool or all of the above, titles are expected to be released in March 2020 meaning you can have everything ready to go for your new build when the titles are released. There is nothing else like this
