3 1 1

Just a short stroll from Bendigo's CBD in the highly sought-after suburb of Ironbark, sits this wonderfully renovated Victorian home with loads of charm and plenty of space for a growing family, or the empty-nester who likes to entertain.

With an alluring façade and an impeccable bull nose veranda, this property provides a remarkable first impression. Typical of a home of this era, the grand hallway leads to three bedrooms and a lounge area and boasts 12ft Baltic pine ceilings. The polished floorboards and impressive cornice work throughout adds to the charm, all complimented by the abundance of natural light beaming through from the rear of the property.

Beyond the original section of the property, you'll find a well equipped and recently upgraded kitchen with open plan
